

Parish of Ballymoney & Derrykeighan

14th July 2024
Fifteenth Sunday of Ordinary Time

WE HAVE WORK TO DO

The readings this week show how God has a special task in mind for each one of us. Even simple folk like the prophet Amos in the first reading or the twelve apostles are called by God to share in his work and to bring his good news to others.

Each of us has a unique calling to bring the love of Jesus Christ to the people we meet. The Lord has entrusted us with the special responsibility of being his hands and feet in the world today. We might find that idea a bit daunting, but he also promises that he will give us the gifts and the graces we need to do his work. The Lord is always with us, so let's not be afraid to go out and bring him to those around us.

HYMNS FOR MASS

Come and take the flesh of Christ
Which he gave to be our bread.
Drink the chalice of his blood
Which upon the cross he shed.

We who are redeemed and saved,
By his body and his blood,
Hail the saving sacred Host
Which he gave to be our food.

Giver of salvation, Lord
Christ, the Son of God most high,
Sacrificed to save the world,
Raised with him, we will not die.

Seek ye first the kingdom of God
And His righteousness;
And all these things
shall be added unto you.
Allelu, Alleluia.

Alleluia, alleluia.
Alleluia, Allelu, Alleluia.

Ask, and it shall be given unto you;
Seek, and ye shall find.
Knock, and the door
shall be opened unto you.
Allelu, Alleluia.
